Welcome to the Regulation Round Up, a regular bulletin highlighting the latest developments in UK and EU financial services regulation.

Key developments in September 2018:

3 September

The Prudential Regulation Authority (“PRA”) published its Regulatory Digest for August 2018 in which it highlighted key regulatory news including reference to a new insurer start-up unit (“NISU”) that the PRA and the Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”) launched jointly. The NISU has been launched as part of the regulators’ work to improve the authorisation process for new insurers in the UK. Accordingly, the PRA and FCA have together published a NISU guide containing information on becoming an insurer in the UK.

The European Central Bank (“ECB”) published an opinion on the European Commission’s legislative proposal for a Regulation amending the Regulation on cross-border payments (924/2009) in relation to certain charges on cross-border payments in the EU and currency conversion charges.

4 September

A prosecution by the FCA resulted in five defendants being convicted and sentenced to a total of 17.5 years’ imprisonment at Southwark Crown Court for their roles in a share fraud carried out through a series of boiler room companies which led to the loss of more than £2.8 million of investors’ money. A sixth defendant was later sentenced on 17 September 2018.

5 September

The Joint Committee of the European Supervisory Authorities (ESAs) published a report setting out the results of its second monitoring exercise on the evolution of automation in financial advice in the securities, banking and insurance sectors over the past two years.

The FCA announced its appointment of Sheldon Mills as its new Director of Competition. She is expected to be a central figure in relation to the FCA’s objective to promote competition in consumer interests.

A draft version of the EEA Passport Rights (Amendment, etc., and Transitional Provisions) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018, together with an explanatory memorandum, were published by the UK government.

6 September

HM Treasury published draft versions of the Payments and Electronic Money (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018 and the Credit Transfers and Direct Debits in Euro (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018, together with an explanatory note.

7 September

The FCA updated its policy development update (PDU) webpage which sets out information on recent and future FCA publications.

The FCA published its twenty-second quarterly consultation paper (CP 18/24) in which it invites comments in relation to proposed amendments to the FCA's rules.

The ECB published for consultation a draft version of the risk-type-specific chapters of its guide to internal models under the single supervisory mechanism. The ECB seeks views on draft chapters to the guide setting out its understanding of the applicable regulations relating to credit risk, market risk and counterparty credit risk.

The European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") published a press release announcing that its register of administrators and third country benchmarks, which it is required to establish and maintain under Article 36 of the Benchmarks Regulation ((EU) 2016/1011) ("BMR"), has moved to the ESMA registers database.

11 September

The FCA published a speech by Andrew Bailey, FCA Chief Executive, at its annual public meeting. Amongst other things, the FCA's guiding principles on Brexit were reiterated, including cross-border market access, support for consistent global standards and co-operation between regulatory authorities.

HM Treasury published a press release announcing that Mark Carney, Governor of the Bank of England (BoE), will remain as governor until 31 January 2020.

The Joint Committee of the European Supervisory Authorities published a report on the risks and vulnerabilities in the EU financial system (JC 2018 34), which sets out recommendations for policy action.

12 September

The PRA published a consultation paper (CP19/18) proposing amendments to its regulatory reporting requirements.

The Creditworthiness Assessment Bill 2017-19 was presented to, and had its first reading in, the House of Commons. If enacted, the Bill would insert a new section 64A(1A) to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ("FSMA") to require that the FCA, in making rules under section 64 of FSMA, ensure firms carrying on credit-related regulated activities and connected activities, and those entering into or varying a regulated mortgage contract or home purchase plan, take into account rental payment history and council tax payment history when assessing a borrower's creditworthiness.

13 September

The UK government has published notices setting out how merger review and competition investigations would be affected if the UK leaves the EU without a deal.
