Shelter from the storm

Robert Rachal, senior counsel for Proskauer Rose LLP law firm in New Orleans, secures metal siding on a Habitat for Humanity house in Slidell. The home was one of four that Proskauer Rose helped Habitat rebuild. The firm donated $45,000 to build one of the homes for Natasha Arrington and her four children, all of whom were displaced by Hurricane Katrina. About 52 Proskauer Rose employees participated in the event.

CityBusiness will run photos of people, businesses and organizations who helped out during and after Hurricane Katrina. To submit photos or suggestions for ReNew Orleans, call Autumn Giusti at 293-9253 or e-mail autumn.giusti@nopg.com.
