

SEC Denies Enforcement Action Award for Failure to Timely File Claim; Narrowly Defines “Extraordinary Circumstances” Exception

Whistleblower Defense Blog on May 21, 2014

As reported by Rachel Ensign of the Wall Street Journal, the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) recently denied a whistleblower-claimant a Commission enforcement action award where the claimant failed to file timely an award claim with the SEC’s Office of the Whistleblower... Continue Reading

Related Professionals

- Lloyd B. Chinn
Partner