Proskauer

Contributing Employers to Multiemployer Plans Are Not Off the Hook – Tracking the Full-Time Status of Employees

ERISA Practice Center Blog on November 11, 2014

Contributing employers to multiemployer plans were relieved by the Treasury Department's interim guidance stating that they will not be subject to the employer shared responsibility payments under the Affordable Care Act ("ACA") with respect to employees for whom they contribute to a multiemployer plan that provides minimum value, offers dependent child coverage and is affordable... Continue Reading

Related Professionals

- Robert M. Projansky
  Partner