

Fourteen States and Four Governors Sue the President on His Immigration Executive Orders – The Battle Begins

Law and the Workplace Blog on December 4, 2014

It didn't take long. Fourteen states and four governors, led by Texas, filed a complaint in the Federal Court in Brownsville, Texas seeking to nullify the President's Executive Order relating to immigration... Continue Reading