

Proskauer's Paris Office Highly Ranked in The Legal 500 Paris 2014

August 20, 2014

August 20, 2014 (Paris) – Proskauer was once again recognized as a top Paris law firm across a range of practices in The Legal 500 Paris 2014, an independent guide to leading lawyers and practices in the region. The firm was highly ranked in six categories, with ten lawyers recognized for their individual contributions.

Proskauer's Paris Employment Law group ranked in Tier One and was regarded by clients as "very good technicians," who always provide "reliable advice and always deliver it on time."

The firm's Private Equity and Private Equity: Fund Formation team was also ranked and praised for its "very good knowledge of the legal environment" and "excellent listening and understanding of client needs."

Proskauer's EU & Competition Law practice, which moved up a tier this year, was recognized for having "developed a strong expertise in distribution law." Additionally, the firm's Mergers & Acquisitions and International Arbitration practices were also highly ranked.

The lawyers in Proskauer's Paris office have experience in multijurisdictional transactions that include mergers and acquisitions, private equity, corporate restructurings and joint ventures. The office's labor and employment practice serves as a key component of the firm's International Labor & Employment Group, focusing on collective bargaining, litigation and counseling with a particular emphasis on large corporate reorganizations and discrimination and wage inequality matters. The office's litigation lawyers are known for their depth of experience and ability to address clients' most critical needs, appearing before both French courts and international tribunals.
