

District Court Allows ERISA Section 510 Retaliation Claim to Proceed

ERISA Practice Center Blog on August 18, 2014

A federal district court in Pennsylvania concluded that Irene Najmola, a former employee of Chester County Hospital, sufficiently pled a retaliation claim under ERISA section 510 by alleging that her employment was terminated shortly after returning from short-term disability leave... Continue Reading