

NLRB General Counsel Issues Guidance on Deferral to Grievance Arbitration and Settlements

Labor Relations Update Blog on February 17, 2015

Following the decision of the National Labor Relations Board in Babcock & Wilcox Construction Co., 361 NLRB No. 132 (December 14, 2014), the NLRB General Counsel has issued Memorandum GC 15-02 (February 10, 2015), which provides guidance to the NLRB regional offices and to the general public regarding the application of that decision in pending and future cases. The memorandum is lengthy and in some respects complex, but here are the key points... Continue Reading
