

SEC Sanctions Senior Executives Of Failed Clearing Broker

Corporate Defense and Disputes Blog on September 19, 2015

On Thursday, the SEC announced charges against several senior executives of Penson Financial Services Inc., once the second-largest clearing broker-dealer in the country, and its parent corporation, Penson Worldwide, Inc., again highlighting the regulatory risks associated with supervisory responsibilities... Continue Reading