

San Francisco Approves City Ordinance Providing For Fully Paid Parental Leave

California Employment Law Blog on April 10, 2016

In yet another recent development on the hot topic of paid family leave, the San Francisco Board of Supervisors has unanimously approved local legislation requiring businesses to provide employees with up to 6 weeks of fully paid parental leave for the birth or adoption of a child. With this ordinance, San Francisco becomes the first city in the United States to offer parental leave at 100 percent of an employee's salary...
