

Friend Request Denied: Judge Asks Attorneys to Refrain from Social Media Searches of Jurors

Minding Your Business Blog on April 1, 2016

In late March 2016, a California federal judge asked both Google, Inc. and Oracle America, Inc. to voluntarily consent to a ban against Internet and social media research on empaneled or prospective jurors until the conclusion of the trial... Continue Reading