

Challenge to Pension Fund Investment Decision Time Barred

ERISA Practice Center Blog on August 10, 2016

A federal district court in California held that a complaint filed by members of the International Union of Operating Engineers that challenged pension plan trustees' decision to make certain investments was filed five days too late and thus barred by ERISA's six-year statute of limitations... Continue Reading