

Auction House Accused of Scraping Competitor's Web Listings

New Media & Technology Law Blog on April 21, 2017

Screen scraping is a problem that has vexed website owners since the early days of e-commerce – how to make valuable content available to users and customers, but prevent competitors from accessing such content for commercial purposes... Continue Reading

Related Professionals

- Jeffrey D. Neuburger