

USDOL Prevails in Kansas in Another Decision on Fiduciary Rule

Employee Benefits & Executive Compensation Blog on February 23, 2017

On February 17, 2017, a federal district Court in Kansas upheld the U.S. Department of Labor's conflict of interest rule and related exemptions in a suit brought by Market Synergy Group, Inc. This ruling on the merits follows the court's prior ruling in November 2016 denying Market Synergy Group's request for a temporary injunction... Continue
