

Union Adherent's Antics Not Protected By Act, NLRB Rules

Labor Relations Update Blog on May 22, 2017

The NLRB recently issued a rare decision completely dismissing all allegations against an employer; rarer still because it was unanimous. In Brooke Glen Behavioral Hospital, 365 NLRB No. 79 (May 15, 2017) the NLRB was confronted with a situation where an employee-union adherent engaged in behavior ultimately found to be inappropriate and unprotected... Continue Reading

Related Professionals

- Mark Theodore
Partner