

Governor Cuomo Signs Executive Order Requiring State Contractors To Report Job Title And Pay Data

Government Contractor Compliance & Regulatory Update Blog on January 11, 2017

On January 9, 2017, New York Governor Andrew Cuomo signed an Executive Order that requires state contractors to disclose, in addition to data on gender, race, and ethnicity that is already required, job title and salary data for all of their employees working on state contracts (or their entire workforce if those working on state contracts cannot be identified)...
