

Proskauer Advises Cincinnati Eye Institute in Launch of CEI Vision Partners

June 1, 2018

June 1, 2018 (New York) – International law firm Proskauer represented Cincinnati Eye Institute (CEI) in the launch of CEI Vision Partners (CEIVP), a new management services organization formed with an investment from Revelstoke Capital Partners.

CEI's management team will lead CEIVP's operations and will continue to provide resources and capabilities to support CEI's clinical operations.

The largest ophthalmology organization in the midwest region of the U.S., CEI provides a high level of medical and surgical eye care with its more than 60 practicing ophthalmologists and optometrists.

The Proskauer team was led by Health Care Department Chair Richard Zall and included senior counsel Ellen Moskowitz and associates Jason Madden and Mara Wilber (Health Care); partner Michael Callahan and associate Grant Darwin (Private Equity and Mergers & Acquisitions); partner Amanda Nussbaum and associate Yomarie Habenicht (Tax); and partner Joshua Miller and associate Ruthanne Minoru (Employee Benefits & Executive Compensation).

Proskauer has a sophisticated health care practice with lawyers across different service offerings bringing unrivalled experience and a keen understanding of the industry's dynamics. Our team combines specialized health law and industry experience with specific practice concentrations that allow us to provide the full range of services for clients across the industry. We advise service providers and health plans, operators, investors and lenders, among others, in matters ranging from complex transactions and regulatory compliance to commercial litigation and defense of government investigations. Over the past six months, the Firm has represented physician practices and private equity investors in M&A and strategic transactions, including Ophthalmic Consultants of Long Island in its partnership with Blue Sea Capital, and The Firmament Group's (formerly Vision Integrated Partners) establishment of a partnership with 30 multi-specialty ophthalmologists and optometrists known as The Founding Practices.
