

Proskauer Strengthens Global Labor and Employment Practice with Addition of Partner Alexandra Stocki in Paris

February 20, 2019

February 15, 2019 (Paris) – International law firm Proskauer announced today the arrival of Alexandra Stocki as a partner in the Labor & Employment Law Department, resident in the Paris office.

“We are pleased to welcome Alexandra to Proskauer,” said Yasmine Tarasewicz, partner and co-head of the French & EU Employment Group. “Her expertise and client base provide perfect synergies with our Firm, while her business acumen and strategic strength will reinforce our ability to advise clients on complex restructurings.”

Alexandra’s practice covers the full range of contentious and advisory matters with regard to employment and social security law, including national, international and multi-jurisdictional issues. She regularly advises both French and international groups on complex transactions, with a particular focus on mergers, acquisitions and restructurings.

Partner and member of the firm’s Executive Committee, Elise Bloom, added “Her addition strategically enhances our offerings to clients, and will greatly increase our ability to service large corporate transactions in France and beyond.”

Alexandra received a business degree from ESCP Europe and a law degree from the University of Paris School René Descartes (Maîtrise in Business Law and Maîtrise in Public Law).

Proskauer has one of the largest and strongest Labor & Employment Law Departments and has handled virtually every type of issue for the largest companies for more than 75 years. From handling the most complex matters to shaping new law, we are trusted advisors on everything impacting the workplace. We work with asset managers, major sports leagues, Fortune 500 companies, entertainment industry legends and other industry-redefining companies.

- Elise M. Bloom

Partner