

Keisha-Ann G. Gray Named an Employment Law Trailblazer by The National Law Journal

March 8, 2019

March 8, 2019 (NEW YORK) – Recognized for making an impact in her field and moving the needle in the legal industry, Keisha-Ann G. Gray has been honored on the inaugural list of Employment Law Trailblazers by The National Law Journal.

Keisha-Ann was recognized for her premier trial work representing Emigrant Bank against allegations of racial discrimination and predatory mortgage lending, as well as her role on the trial team that represented Rockefeller University in a federal jury trial for a discrimination suit. Companies turn to Keisha-Ann for investigations, anti-discrimination and harassment matters.

The National Law Journal writes, “[Keisha-Ann] believes the past year has shown the real utility of diversity and inclusion, not just in a business sense but at the core of organizations.” Read Keisha-Ann’s feature in full here.
