

Insurance Considerations for Managers, Funds and Portfolio Companies

April 22, 2020

John Failla and Nate Lander from Proskauer's Insurance Recovery and Counseling Group will address some of the most important insurance considerations impacting the industry as a result of COVID-19 and current financial circumstances. This will include:

- Recovery of business interruption losses suffered by asset management firms, portfolio companies, defaulting borrowers, and others.
- Protection of asset management firms, individuals and portfolio companies against claims arising from the current crisis.
- Protection of individuals appointed to boards of portfolio companies and borrower operating companies.
- Protection against increased cyber risks.
