

Preferred Equity: Flexible Financing Solutions

Bloomberg Law on June 11, 2020

Preferred equity has emerged as a viable supplement, and in some instances alternative, to traditional debt financing and GP-led secondary liquidity processes. This highly customizable form of financing is essentially a hybrid debt and equity product, and is particularly relevant now as private fund sponsors and limited partners (LPs) navigate the economic dislocation resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic.

Download the full article below.

Related Professionals

- Janicelynn Asamoto Park
Partner
- Jeremy Naylor
Partner
- Joseph E. Kasegian
Partner
- Michael R. Suppappola
Partner