Proskauer Adds Private Funds Partner to its Corporate Transactional Team

September 8, 2020

Firm continues strategic growth and adds to the depth of its Private Funds group

New York, September 8, 2020 – Proskauer, a leading international law firm, announced today that Christopher C. Robinson has joined the Firm's Private Funds Group as a partner based in New York.

"Chris is an outstanding lawyer with a depth of experience in the Private Funds arena. His joining marks the eleventh lateral partner we have welcomed this year and continues our strategy of growing in our core practices, building on the depth of talent within our Firm," said Steven M. Ellis, Chairman of Proskauer.

"I am thrilled to be joining Proskauer. The Firm is known for having a world-class Private Funds practice that is widely respected in the industry. Proskauer recognizes and values collegiality, professional excellence, entrepreneurship, integrity and client service, which makes them an ideal fit for me," said Chris Robinson.

"Chris is well known in the market as an innovative problem solver who is focused on providing outstanding client service. His addition builds on the strength of our team and our market-leading secondaries practice," said Howard Beber, Co-Chair of the Firm's Private Funds Group.

Chris' practice focuses on all aspects of the secondaries market from the purchase and sales of fund interests, to complex GP-led transactions including fund recapitalizations, continuation vehicles, tender offers, spin-out arrangements and restructurings. He also works with private fund managers on fund formations and other related matters.

Chris graduated cum laude from Howard University with a B.A. in Political Science and Business Administration. He received his J.D. from Seton Hall University. He joins from Kirkland & Ellis.

Chris' arrival follows a number of significant recent additions to the Corporate and Real Estate practices, including, most recently Fred Ragucci, Mike Mezzacappa, Marc Friess and Ji Hye You to our Private Credit Group; Keith Barnett, Sean Boulger and Robert Burke to our Real Estate Practice; and James Lee and Jae Woo Park to our M&A Practice.
