

The Sedona Conference Working Group 12 on Trade Secrets Annual Meeting 2020, Online

Law and the Workplace Blog on November 9, 2020

John Barry will be participating in The Sedona Conference Working Group 12 on Trade Secrets (WG12) Annual Meeting. The conference will take place virtually from Monday, November 9 to Tuesday, November 10 from 11:30 AM – 4:30 PM ET each day. This meeting will advance WG12's first set of commentary drafting team efforts towards non-partisan consensus publication for public comment by end of 2020/early 2021.

John will be presenting with a panel of leading legal experts who will address the following topic: "Inevitable Tension: Reconciling Public Court Access with Protecting Trade Secrets in Litigation".

Overall, the conference will include the following topics:

- Caselaw Synergies: Six Recent Trade Secret Cases Raising Issues for Dialogue Over the Next Two Days
- Leveraging Internal Assets in the Governance and Management of Trade Secrets
- Trade Secret Issues Across International Borders
- Inevitable Tension: Reconciling Public Court Access with Protecting Trade Secrets in Litigation
- Tailoring Remedies to the Misappropriation: Equitable Relief, Damages, or Both
- Judicial Roundtable

For more information about The Sedona Conference Working Group 12 on Trade Secrets (WG12) Annual Meeting, please click here.

View Original