Proskauer Expands Regulatory Capabilities with Addition of Private Funds Partner Robert H. Sutton

February 22, 2022

NEW YORK, February 22, 2022 – Proskauer, a leading international law firm, announced today that it has welcomed Robert H. Sutton as a Partner in its Private Funds Group. Based in Proskauer's New York office, Rob will deepen the bench of regulatory expertise the Firm offers to clients.

Rob's practice focuses on the regulation of managers and advisers of private funds, including private equity, credit, real estate, infrastructure, hedge and other private funds. With more than 20 years of experience, he regularly advises clients regarding the Investment Advisers Act, Investment Company Act and other related regulatory matters.

"As the regulatory environment evolves and the SEC implements new rules and regulations, Rob's background counseling investment advisers and fund sponsors will provide unmatched guidance for our clients. He is a great addition to our team," said Partner Howard Beber, co-head of the Firm's Private Funds Group.

"We are excited to welcome Rob to Proskauer. He brings a practical and commercial perspective to regulatory advice, and will deepen our ability to serve our asset manager client base," said Daryn Grossman, Managing Partner of the Firm.

Rob has experience counseling a wide spectrum of clients, including many of the largest and most sophisticated firms in the asset management industry, as well as start-up organizations marketing their first products and mid-sized firms seeking to grow.

"I am very much looking forward to collaborating with my new colleagues, deepening our scope of capabilities and helping our clients navigate the myriad of issues faced by the investment management industry," said Rob.

Rob received his A.B. from Harvard College and J.D. from Fordham University School of Law. He joins from Kirkland & Ellis.
