

Proskauer Partners Michael Cardozo and Paul Salvatore Named to New York City & State's 2022 Law Power 100 List

March 9, 2022

NEW YORK, March 9, 2022 - Proskauer, a leading international law firm, announced today that the New York City & State 2022 Law Power 100 List has recognized partners Michael Cardozo and Paul Salvatore for the third consecutive year.

City & State's 2022 Law Power 100 List is based on "who's having an impact in New York's political and government spheres and features prominent public officials, top legal advisers and powerful prosecutors at the local, state and federal level."

Michael Cardozo, litigation partner and New York City's Corporation Counsel during the Bloomberg years, was noted for the fact that New York City agencies and national sports leagues are among the institutions that have relied on Cardozo's legal expertise. It also notes that he helped draft an amicus brief on behalf of the Coalition for the Homeless last year regarding a case before the New York Court of Appeals.

Paul Salvatore, labor and employment partner, was noted for advising on collective bargaining agreements in New York's real estate industry, serving such clients as the Real Estate Board of New York and The Related Cos.
