

Proskauer's Keisha-Ann G. Gray Named to New York City Mayor's Advisory Committee on the Judiciary

April 26, 2022

NEW YORK, April 26, 2022 – Proskauer, a leading international law firm, is delighted to announce that partner Keisha-Ann G. Gray has been appointed to the New York City Mayor's Advisory Committee on the Judiciary (MACJ) by Chief Judge of the New York Court of Appeals Janet DiFiore.

Members of the MACJ recruit, screen and recommend candidates for the New York City Criminal and Family courts, as well as interim appointments to civil court. The committee represents a diverse and broad cross-section of New York City's legal community.

"I am humbled and honored by my appointment to the Mayor's Advisory Committee on the Judiciary. I look forward to partnering with Mayor Adams' administration and the city's legal community to help create a judicial system that is reflective of New York City's diverse population, and more equitable for all," said Keisha-Ann.

Keisha-Ann is a trial lawyer and partner in Proskauer's Labor and Employment Law Department where she focuses on employment discrimination litigation and conducting workplace misconduct investigations. Prior to joining Proskauer, Keisha-Ann served as an assistant U.S. attorney in the Eastern District of New York and was also a federal law clerk in the U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico.

She currently serves on the Board of the Attorney Grievance Committee for the New York Supreme Court Appellate Division, First Judicial Department; the Board of the Federal Bar Council; the Board of the Eastern District Association; and she co-chairs the Federal Bar Council's Employment Litigation Committee, as well as Proskauer's Workplace Investigations Practice Group.
