Proskauer Welcomes M&A Partner Liam Arthur in London

November 1, 2022

LONDON, November 1, 2022 – Proskauer, a leading international law firm, is pleased to welcome Liam Arthur as a partner and member of the Mergers & Acquisitions Practice in London.

Liam advises on a broad spectrum of corporate transactions, with particular experience in counselling private funds, sovereign wealth funds and other financial sponsors on M&A, leveraged buyouts, equity investments, consortium transactions, joint ventures, and on distressed situations.

"We are delighted to welcome Liam back to the Proskauer team," said Steven Davis, co-head of our global M&A practice and co-head of the London office. "We have a steady flow of deals in mergers & acquisitions at the moment and Liam will be indispensable in contributing to their success."

Liam received his B.A. from Trinity College, Dublin, and his Diploma in Legal Studies and B.L. from King's Inns, Dublin. He joins from William Fry and was previously with Proskauer for six years.

Proskauer has also welcomed a number of partners in London of late. Frazer Money joined the tax practice, Adrian Cohen joined the restructuring practice, Barry Newman joined in the Finance practice, Rebecca Villarreal joined as a partner in the M&A practice, Peter Olds joined in the Private Funds Group, and Steven Baker joined the Litigation Department.
