Proskauer Advises Isio on Strategic Investment from Aquiline

July 3, 2024

New capital will be used to support future growth

LONDON, July 3, 2024 – Leading international law firm Proskauer is pleased to announce that it advised the management team of Isio, one of the fastest growing pensions, reward and benefit and investment advisory businesses in the UK, in connection with the strategic investment from private investment firm Aquiline Capital Partners LP ("Aquiline"). The investment, which is subject to regulatory requirements, will be used to support Isio's future growth and will also see Exponent, which has supported Isio from before its inception in March 2020, exit its investment in the business.

Isio has experienced significant growth over the past four years, more than doubling revenue, profit and headcount, and now employs 1,200 people across 10 UK offices. The new capital will support this trajectory with a focus on delivering value for clients through innovation.

The Proskauer team advising Isio was led by partner Andrew Houghton and associates David Hill and Anna Sykes (M&A).
