Proskauer Advises MML Capital On Minority Stake Investment into SC PACK

July 15, 2024

PARIS, July 15, 2024 – Proskauer, a leading international law firm, today announced it advised MML Capital on its agreement to take a minority stake in SC PACK alongside the founders' family, the management team and the leaders of acquired companies.

This partnership marks a key milestone in a rich history of nearly 60 years, initiated and carried by the Allemandou family and accelerated by the current leaders of the group, Stéphane and Christophe Allemandou, in recent years.

Founded nearly 60 years ago and led by the Allemandou family (Stéphane and Christophe), SC PACK group manufactures and distributes hollow-body packaging in all materials (glass, metal, PP, PET, HDPE, aluminum, cardboard) and across all sectors. Today, SC PACK has developed an integrated distribution and production platform with a network of over 255 sites in France and Belgium and is one of the leaders in integrated packaging distribution in Europe.

The partnership with MML Capital will allow continued organic and external development, further building an integrated European platform for packaging distribution and production.

The Proskauer team advising MML Capital was led by partner Jeremy Scemama and included associates Marion Bruère, Benjamin Benzakine and Mohamed Kettani (M&A).

Proskauer’s Paris office advises leading organizations on a broad range of domestic and cross-border contentious and transactional matters. Working closely with the London and U.S. offices, the team advises European clients as they expand their business operations globally, as well as clients from all parts of the world looking to invest in France. Proskauer has one of the leading transactional practices in France, advising prominent private equity sponsors, financial institutions, industrial and services groups, as well as management teams.
