2024 Proskauer Alumni Los Angeles Reunion

October 23, 2024

For the third consecutive year, the Los Angeles office hosted its Proskauer Alumni reunion. More than 40 alumni, including in-house counsel from Contract Services Administration Trust Fund, DoubleVerify, North Woodmere Capital, Petco, The New York Times Company and The Walt Disney Company attended the event for an evening of reconnection and valuable networking.

"Proskauer understands the importance of hiring people who care about each other in ways that exemplify respect, admiration and appreciation."

Bart Williams, Litigation Partner and Los Angeles Office Head

Partner and Los Angeles office head Bart Williams kicked off the evening with a welcome address, sharing some personal insights about his own experience at Proskauer.

"I've been with Proskauer for eight-and-a-half years, and I find that, with each passing year, events like this one provide me with an opportunity to reflect on my time at the Firm and the things that make it such a special place to practice," commented Williams. "Without a doubt it's the people. Most everyone at Proskauer is equally kind and generous as they are talented and ambitious. Proskauer understands the importance of hiring people who care about each other in ways that exemplify respect, admiration and appreciation. Looking out at each of you tonight, I'm reminded of this important truth."

Throughout the evening, attendees not only reminisced about their years at Proskauer and the matters they collaborated on, but also shared some recent professional and personal updates with each other, making the gathering a pivotal networking event for our Los Angeles office.
