Proskauer Advises Thoma Bravo on Completion of Fundraising for Credit Fund III

January 27, 2025

Amasses $3.6 Billion in Total Available Capital for its Credit Platform

NEW YORK, January 27, 2025 – Proskauer, a leading international law firm, advised leading software investment firm Thoma Bravo on the completion of fundraising for Thoma Bravo Credit Fund III ("Fund III") at $3.6 billion in total available capital (including anticipated leverage). This represents Thoma Bravo's largest credit pool of capital to date and will expand Thoma Bravo Credit's leadership in enterprise software.

The Thoma Bravo Credit platform focuses on the senior secured debt of established, mission-critical enterprise software companies. The platform targets sponsor-backed companies and leverages Thoma Bravo's extensive sector experience in enterprise software, as well as its broad and differentiated sourcing channels. Since its inception in 2017, the platform has invested over $8.0 billion across approximately 100 transactions. Fund III has invested more than $1.0 billion across 20 investments to date.

The Proskauer team was led by partners Chip Parsons and Ryan Carpenter (Private Funds) and partners David Miller and Janicelynn Asamoto Park (Tax). It also included partners Monica Arora and Robert Sutton and associates Alicia Abboud, Sofia Kurtz and Bianca Tomassini (Private Funds); associate Sean Webb (Tax); and partner Adam Scoll (EBEC).
