Proskauer Advises AnaCap on Acquisition of FJMF

March 28, 2025

LONDON AND PARIS, March 26, 2025 – Proskauer, a leading international law firm, today announced it advised AnaCap on the acquisition of a majority stake in the Luxembourg-based corporate and fund services provider Fiduciaire Jean Marc Faber (FJMF).

FJMF is a provider of trust, fund, and corporate services, including corporate administration, accountancy, trust, fund and payroll services. With approximately 70 full-time equivalents, FJMF is a member of the Ordre des Experts-Comptables and the company serves as a "one-stop-shop" provider for more than 1,800 clients, mostly institutional fund customers and patrimonial clients.

Proskauer has advised AnaCap in a long line of transactions including its acquisition of insurance software provider Cleva from Inetum Group; the closing of its maiden Continuation Fund at circa €300mn; the sale of a minority stake in MRH Trowe and advising in connection with the reinvestment terms relating to the sale of its majority stake in Gestión Tributaria Territorial, SA.

The Proskauer team was led by partners Stéphanie Martinier and Richard Bull and included associates David Hill and Eleanor Craven (M&A) in London and associates Hugo Monteiro Vieira and Aurélie Briquet (M&A) in Paris. The team also included partner Barry Newman and associate Charlotte Boylin (Finance).
