Proskauer Advises KINOBE Group on Equity Investment by Aquasourça and Société Générale Capital Partenaires

June 30, 2025

PARIS, June 30, 2025 – Leading international law firm Proskauer has advised the KINOBE Group (“The Group), a leading company in the importation, ripening, packaging, and distribution of tropical and off-season fruits, in connection with a minority investment by Aquasourça, a family office, and the investment fund, Société Générale Capital Partenaires, aimed at accelerating an ambitious growth strategy.

The Group distributes a wide range of products in France and Europe, serving supermarket chains and wholesalers.

Based in Marseille, Rungis, Cavaillon, Le Thor, and Rotterdam, the Group has rapidly expanded through both organic and external growth. Its market expertise, network of over 400 producer-exporters across 45 countries, and its customer base make it a key player in its sector.

The investment by Aquasourça and Société Générale Capital Partenaires will enable The Group to further accelerate its growth momentum.

The Proskauer team advising KINOBE Group was led by partner Matthieu Lampel and associates Marine Petot, Benjamin Benzakine and Hugo Monteiro Vieira (M&A). The team also included partner Gwenaël Kropfinger and associate Maxime Dussartre (Tax); partner Maud Manon and counsels Pierre Tardivo and Bruno Valenti (Finance).
