Seasoned Health Care Advisor Expands Proskauer's Health Care Regulatory and Transactional Capabilities

BOSTON, July 16, 2025 – Proskauer, a leading international law firm, is pleased to welcome partner Devin Cohen to its Corporate Department and Health Care Group. Devin will be based in the Firm's Boston office and brings extensive experience representing leading health care organizations and private equity sponsors on significant health care deals and complex compliance issues.

"Devin is a terrific addition to our Health Care Group. He has a deep understanding of both transactional structuring and the regulatory landscape across the life sciences and health services spaces, all skills that strengthen and scale our ability to address clients' needs and the growing demand in this space," said Lauren Boglivi, co-chair of Proskauer's Corporate Department.

Devin represents pharmaceutical and medical device companies, health care service providers, insurers, management services organizations and investors on a range of regulatory and transactional matters including payer-provider alignment, value-based care, risk contracting and Medicare Advantage. He also has extensive experience representing sponsors and other stakeholders in connection with human subjects and animal research matters, fraud and abuse, compliance and reimbursement issues, as well as in connection with financially distressed health care assets.

"Devin adds significant depth to our capabilities and enhances our ability to service clients across private credit, restructuring and private equity transactions," said David Manko, Head of the Firm's Health Care Group. "Based in Boston, a hub for hospitals, academic medical centers and universities, Devin brings valuable insights into this sector and is uniquely positioned to support clients not only in Massachusetts, but also around the U.S. I'm excited to work closely as we continue to build and collaborate."

“I am honored to join Proskauer and contribute to a team focused on providing innovative, collaborative counsel across the health care sector. The Firm’s strategic vision and commitment to delivering sophisticated, client-focused solutions resonates deeply with my practice and I look forward to guiding clients through complex regulatory and transactional matters with clarity and confidence,” said Devin.

Devin received his Bachelor of Arts from Brown University and his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School.
