Proskauer Advises CapitalSpring on Majority Investment in Leading Mister Sparky Franchisee

July 22, 2025

NEW YORK, July 22, 2025 – Leading international law firm Proskauer announced today that it advised CapitalSpring, a leading investment firm focused on multi-location consumer businesses, on its majority investment in the second largest Mister Sparky franchisee in the country. Atticus Franchise Group was a significant co-investor in the transaction.

For over 20 years, CapitalSpring has supported proven management teams with financial, strategic and operational resources to accelerate growth and to realize the full potential of their businesses. CapitalSpring offers one-stop capital solutions and a broad range of investment capabilities including private equity, mezzanine capital and senior debt. The firm is headquartered in Nashville and has offices in Los Angeles, Atlanta and New York.

Mister Sparky is one of the nation's largest consumer electrical franchises, offering premium residential services in more than 150 cities. The transaction expands CapitalSpring's platform into the home services industry, and CapitalSpring and Atticus Franchise Group will partner with management to support continued expansion in electrical services and evaluate adjacent service lines.

The Proskauer team was led by partner Kris Herrmann and associate Jesse Vreeken (M&A), and included associates Lauren Altus, J. Ryan Murphy and John Campanella (M&A); partner Malcolm Hochenberg and associate Rita Halabi (Tax); partner Nicholas LaSpina and associate Heather Monte (EBEC); partner Wai Choy and associate Jiyoon Kim (Technology, Media & Telecommunications); and partner Nathan Lander (Insurance).
