Proskauer Serves as Antitrust Counsel for Wayne-Sanderson Farms in Acquisition of Harrison Poultry

July 30, 2025

WASHINGTON, DC, July 30, 2025 – Proskauer is proud to announce that it served as antitrust counsel for Wayne-Sanderson Farms in its acquisition of Georgia-based Harrison Poultry, a major producer of high-quality chicken known for its proprietary "Golden Goodness" range of traditional, international and halal poultry products. The sale is effective immediately and includes transfer of all Harrison Poultry assets to Wayne-Sanderson Farms, including live production, hatchery, feed mill, manufacturing, production and transportation facilities and equipment in association with Harrison's Bethlehem and Crawfordville area operations.

Wayne-Sanderson Farms is an industry leader and the nation's third-largest poultry producer, serving customers, consumers and communities with integrity, leadership and responsible farm workplace and business practices.

The Proskauer team was led by partners Chris Ondeck and John Ingrassia and included partners Stephen Chuk and Shawn Ledingham, and associates Timothy Burroughs, Courtland Cuevas, Jared DuBosar, Alexander Guzy-Sprague, Brandon McCoy, Shannon McGowan, KaDee Ru, Simona Weil, Connor Villar and Eamon Wizner (Litigation).
