Peter Mason Joins Proskauer as Leveraged Finance Partner in London

August 14, 2025

LONDON, August 14, 2025 – Proskauer has added Peter Mason as a partner in its Global Finance practice in London. His arrival strengthens the firm's European leveraged finance capabilities at a time of continued growth and momentum.

Peter advises lenders, sponsors, and corporations on complex financings across the capital structure, including European and U.S.-style Term Loan B, bank/bond, and direct lending deals. His experience spans leveraged and investment-grade transactions, real estate financings, and restructurings.

Peter was named a Rising Star of European Finance 2025 by Financial News.

"Our Global Finance team continues to grow in response to increasing client demand," said Philip Bowden, co-head of the Global Finance practice. "Peter brings valuable insight and a strong track record spanning the deal spectrum. I am excited to welcome him as we continue to grow our platform and deliver a full suite of leveraged finance solutions globally."

Firm Chair Tim Mungovan added: "Peter is a strong addition to our London office and Global Finance team. Peter has extensive experience in both the large-cap and mid-market space. Our clients will benefit from his expertise and trusted counsel."

Peter said: "Proskauer's finance platform is well known for the exceptional quality of its work and client focus. I'm thrilled to join at a time of growth and help clients navigate the evolving private credit and syndicated lending markets."

Peter’s arrival follows a series of strategic additions to Proskauer’s Global Finance Group in Europe and the U.S. In London alone, the firm has added seven Global Finance partners in the past year, including Philip Bowden, Megan Lawrence, Warren Newton, Jake Keaveny, Courtland Tisdale, Clare Cottle and John Goldfinch. The firm also recently welcomed U.S.-based partners Blake Gilson, Lawrence (Larry) Berkovich, Alexandra de Padua, Frank Oliver and Heather Viets.
