

Proskauer Becomes Gold Sponsor of the British Emerging Manager Institute

October 28, 2025

LONDON, October 28, 2025 – Proskauer today announces that it is Gold Sponsor of the British Emerging Manager Institute (BEMI), the British chapter of the Global Emerging Manager Institute. This collaboration reflects the Firm’s ongoing commitment to supporting innovation, diversity, and growth within the asset management industry.

Through this sponsorship, Proskauer will work closely with the BEMI on a range of thought leadership initiatives and networking events. These collaborations will enable the Firm to share insights into the evolving investment landscape and to engage directly with emerging fund managers, investors, and other key stakeholders shaping the future of the market.

The partnership will foster dialogue and knowledge exchange across the emerging manager community and help clients navigate the opportunities and challenges of building and scaling investment platforms. The sponsorship will also enhance Proskauer’s ability to connect with clients and potential clients within the emerging manager ecosystem, where innovation is driving meaningful change.

BEMI is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to empowering the next generation of asset managers. As the British chapter of the Global Emerging Manager Institute, BEMI brings together fund managers, allocators, and industry leaders to advance best practices, promote inclusivity, and support the growth of firms that deliver measurable, long-term impact. The Institute provides a platform for education, collaboration, and advocacy—helping build a more diverse, sustainable and competitive investment industry.
