Antitrust Partner Jaclyn Phillips Joins Proskauer in Washington, D.C.

November 6, 2025

WASHINGTON, D.C., November 6, 2025 – Proskauer is pleased to welcome Jaclyn Phillips as an Antitrust partner in its Litigation Department in Washington, D.C. Jaclyn has significant experience representing clients across industries through all stages of large-scale litigations and regulatory investigations brought by U.S. and international authorities.

Jaclyn brings a nuanced understanding of complex antitrust matters, along with the regulatory frameworks and business dynamics that influence competition disputes. She has successfully defended leading corporations in multidistrict and class action litigation and appeals, particularly in cases alleging anticompetitive conduct involving patent settlements and other market exclusion strategies.

“Growing our market-leading antitrust platform is a strategic priority for the Firm. Jaclyn strengthens our ability to advise clients navigating high-stakes litigation and regulatory challenges,” said Firm Chairman, Tim Mungovan.

“I’m excited to welcome Jaclyn to the Litigation Department. Jaclyn embodies the next generation of antitrust leaders, bringing sharp strategic instincts, courtroom experience and a forward-looking perspective. Her arrival reflects the momentum of our department and enhances the depth of our antitrust bench,” said Bart Williams, Chair of Proskauer’s Litigation Department.

“The Firm’s commitment to helping clients stay ahead of emerging antitrust challenges made Proskauer the ideal place to build my practice. I look forward to collaborating with my colleagues to guide clients through this evolving landscape,” said Jaclyn.

About Proskauer

The world’s leading organizations and global players choose Proskauer to represent them when they need it the most.
