Proskauer Expands Fund Capabilities with Addition of Partner Vlad Bulkin

March 3, 2026

NEW YORK, March 3, 2026 – Proskauer announced today that Vlad Bulkin has joined the Firm as a partner in its Private Investment Funds Group, reinforcing the Firm's commitment to investing in cross-disciplinary teams that align with our private capital clients.

Vlad has extensive experience advising business development companies (BDCs), registered funds, and other investment companies on fund formation, capital raising and ongoing regulatory matters under the Investment Company Act and the Investment Advisers Act. He represents issuers and underwriters in public and private offerings of equity and debt securities, including IPOs, at-the-market offerings, preferred stock offerings, debt offerings and strategic mergers. He also counsels public regulated investment companies on governance, reporting and securities law compliance.

"We are pleased to welcome Vlad to Proskauer's Private Investment Funds Group. Our clients are actively exploring alternative regulated solutions to access capital. Vlad is a skilled practitioner who strengthens our practice with capabilities in fund formation, transactions and regulatory compliance," said Howard Beber, co-chair of Proskauer's Corporate Department and co-head of the Private Investment Funds Group. "Vlad will be an important resource to clients across our industry-leading private capital practices, including Private Credit, Funds, Secondaries and Capital Markets."

"Proskauer has elite Private Funds and Private Credit platforms. The Firm's integrated approach across funds and finance create meaningful advantages for asset managers navigating a rapidly evolving market. I am excited to join a Firm that continues to make significant investments in private capital, including in the registered funds sector," said Vlad.

Vlad’s arrival continues a surge of lateral growth across our Private Investment Funds and Global Finance groups. Since the start of 2024, the Private Investment Funds team has added 14 partners, and the Global Finance group has welcomed 25 partners in the same period.
