Sandra Lee Montgomery Named a 2026 Banking & Finance Visionary by Los Angeles Times

March 23, 2026

LOS ANGELES, March 23, 2026 – Proskauer is pleased to announce that the Los Angeles Times has named partner Sandra Lee Montgomery a 2026 Banking & Finance Visionary for the fourth consecutive year. The annual list recognizes outstanding professionals and advisers in the commercial banking, investment banking, asset/investment management, lending and private equity sectors.

Sandra is co-chair of Proskauer's Corporate Department and a partner in the Private Credit & Leveraged Finance Group. She is a recognized leader in banking and finance, working with institutional investors, direct lenders, private debt funds and investment banks on complex, high-value transactions nationwide. Clients rely on Sandra for clear judgment, commercial focus and a strong command of sophisticated capital structures when financing matters are business-critical. With nearly three decades of experience, Sandra's practice encompasses the full spectrum of transactions including acquisitions, recapitalizations, leveraged finance, cash-flow and asset-based facilities, debtor-in-possession and exit financings, cross-border deals, unitranche and mezzanine structures and restructurings.

Individuals selected for Los Angeles Times' 2026 Banking & Finance Visionaries were evaluated on several criteria, including noteworthy successes during the last 12-24 months, consistent demonstration of leadership and impact made to their organization and industry's growth.
