Proskauer Continues Private Funds Growth With Addition of Zeeshan Ahmedani in Los Angeles

May 5, 2026

LOS ANGELES, May 5, 2026 – Proskauer is thrilled to welcome Zeeshan "Zee" Ahmedani as a partner in its Private Funds Group in Los Angeles. Zee is a highly regarded private funds lawyer with nearly 30 years of experience advising sponsors across private equity, venture capital, and real assets. His arrival expands and strengthens Proskauer's private funds capabilities and bolsters the Firm's private capital platform, including its Private Equity Transactions, Fund Finance, and Real Assets practices.

"Zee has extensive experience advising clients across several market cycles," said Firm Chair, Tim Mungovan. "Over the course of his three-decade career, Zee has built enduring relationships with leading sponsors and brings a practical, commercial approach to structuring complex transactions. Zee's client base and capabilities enhance our global offering, especially in our market-leading Private Funds Group."

Zee advises investment managers and sponsors on the formation and operation of private investment funds in the U.S. and internationally, across a variety of strategies including private equity, real estate, hedge, distressed, hybrid and Shari'ah-compliant funds. He represents managers, placement agents and sponsors on capital formation and provides counsel on the establishment of management companies and compensation arrangements. His practice also includes advising on U.S. regulatory matters, including issues involving investment advisers and investment companies.

"Zee's arrival reflects the continued momentum of our Private Funds Group and our commitment to investing in Los Angeles," said Monica Arora, co-head of Proskauer's Private Funds Group. "He brings deep sponsor-side experience across asset classes and jurisdictions. Our clients will benefit from his practical judgment and his ability to connect fund formation with the broader transactional and finance needs of their platforms."

“I have worked alongside Monica and many Proskauer fund lawyers on a number of matters over the years and have seen firsthand the strength of the platform and the collaborative culture,” said Zee. “The Firm’s integrated approach across fund formation, private equity transactions, real assets and finance is compelling. I am excited to join my new partners and to help clients build and grow in an increasingly competitive market.”

Zee’s arrival follows a surge of lateral growth across Proskauer’s Private Funds group. Since the start of 2024, the Private Funds team has added 15 partners across the U.S., London, and Paris.
