Proskauer Welcomes Fabrice Grillo as Global Finance Partner in Paris

June 26, 2026

PARIS, June 26, 2026 – Proskauer announced today that Fabrice Grillo has joined the Firm as a partner in its Global Finance practice in Paris. He has significant experience in infrastructure finance and cross-border transactions, strengthening the Firm's ability to advise clients on complex European financing and restructuring mandates.

Fabrice advises major financial institutions, multinational corporates, and financial sponsors on a wide range of financing matters, including acquisition and leveraged financings, private credit structures, infrastructure investment, liquidity solutions, and distressed situations.

"Fabrice is a leading finance lawyer with long-standing relationships across the French and European markets," said Xavier Norlain, head of Proskauer's Paris office. "As we continue growing strategically in these key markets, Fabrice's experience will further enhance our ability to support clients on their most complex and business-critical matters."

"Our clients are operating in a dynamic financing landscape where capital markets, private credit, and restructuring solutions now intersect," said Philip Bowden, co-head of the Global Finance practice. "Fabrice is an accomplished advisor who will support clients in addressing the opportunities and challenges arising from these shifting market conditions. He will be a strong contributor to the continued development of our growing global finance offering."

"I am thrilled to join Proskauer at such an exciting moment for the Firm's Paris office and Global Finance practice," said Fabrice. "Proskauer has built an integrated private capital offering, with exceptional strength in private credit, leveraged finance, restructuring, and transactional work. I look forward to working with colleagues across the Firm to advise clients on some of the most sophisticated financing opportunities in the market."

Proskauer continues to invest in Paris. The addition of Fabrice follows a series of lateral partner hires across key practice areas, including Private Funds, Private Equity and M&A, Restructuring, International Investigations, and Tax. Proskauer now has over 50 lawyers in Paris.
