Alexandria Zeizel Named to Private Equity International and Secondaries Investor's 2026 'Next Gen Leaders of Secondaries' List

September 1, 2026

NEW YORK, September 1, 2026 – Proskauer is pleased to announce that partner Alexandria (Alex) Zeizel has been named one of Private Equity International and Secondaries Investor's Next Generation Leaders of Secondaries for 2026. The annual list recognizes the most impressive secondaries professionals under 36.

A partner in the Firm's Private Funds Group, Alex advises secondary clients and private fund sponsors on a range of secondary transactions, including traditional portfolio sales, fund restructurings, co-investments, stapled secondaries, and GP-led liquidity transactions. Over the past year, she has advised on more than 60 transactions across the secondaries market.

Beyond her transactional practice, Alex is committed to developing the next generation of secondaries professionals by serving as a mentor to junior lawyers. She is also active in the secondaries community as a keynote speaker at Proskauer's Secondaries School and a lead organizer of the Firm's flagship Secondaries Pulse Check conference.

Individuals featured in Private Equity International and Secondaries Investor's list are selected from hundreds of nominations and scored across several criteria, including input into high-value deals, displays of leadership and innovation, and history of working with high-caliber firms.
