Proskauer Advises Carrick Capital Partners on Closing of $600 Million Continuation Vehicle for Saviynt

September 3, 2026

NEW YORK, September 3, 2026 – Proskauer advised Carrick Capital Partners, a growth-oriented investment firm focused on operationally scaling B2B software and technology-enabled businesses, on the closing of an oversubscribed single-asset continuation vehicle for Saviynt, a leading identity security company, with approximately $600 million in capital commitments.

Coller Capital was the lead investor, and HSBC Asset Management acted as co-lead investor in the new vehicle. The transaction provides liquidity for existing limited partners.

The Proskauer team was led by partners Blake Halperin and Chris Robinson (Private Funds); partner Mike Ellis (M&A); and partner Jeremy Naylor (Tax). It also included senior counsel Nicholas McCoy and associates Andrew MacKinlay, Michael Sorrentino, Brendan Conroy, Serge Charles, and Joseph Kamp (Private Funds); partners Nathan Schuur and Robert Sutton (Regulatory); associates Jordan Shelton, J. Ryan Murphy, and Kathie Duperval (M&A); and associates Jeanette Stecker and Kendall Keshtkar (Tax).
