

Proskauer Welcomes Antitrust Partner Edouard Sarrazin to Paris Office

September 17, 2026

PARIS, September 17, 2026 - Proskauer today announced that Edouard Sarrazin has joined the Firm as a partner in its Antitrust Group, based in Paris. His arrival further strengthens Proskauer's European antitrust offering and underscores the Firm's continued investment in growing our internationally recognized competition practice.

Edouard advises private equity sponsors, strategic acquirers, and multinational companies on all aspects of EU and French competition law. His practice encompasses transactional antitrust matters, including merger control, foreign direct investment reviews, and Foreign Subsidies Regulation reviews, as well as cartel investigations, antitrust litigation, and behavioral competition matters. He regularly represents clients before the European Commission and the French Competition Authority and has broad experience advising on dawn raids, abuse of dominance, and complex cross-border investigations.

"As regulatory approvals play an increasingly critical role in deal certainty and timing, Edouard's arrival strengthens our ability to provide seamless, commercially focused advice to our clients," said Xavier Norlain, Head of Proskauer's Paris office. "He will be a strong contributor to our team in Paris and across Europe."

"We are excited to welcome Edouard to Proskauer," said Colin Kass, partner in the Litigation Department and co-Head of Proskauer's Antitrust Group. "His deep experience advising on dawn raids, managing cartel investigations, and handling antitrust litigation before the European Commission and the French Competition Authority significantly enhances our ability to guide clients through complex, multijurisdictional investigations and disputes."

“Effective antitrust counsel requires an extensive understanding of each client’s business objectives and the ability to translate complex issues into clear, actionable solutions,” Edouard said. “Proskauer’s leading private capital and competition capabilities provide an exceptional platform to support clients on their most strategically important matters. I am eager to help clients pursue ambitious transactions in France and across borders.”

Edouard’s arrival builds on a series of strategic partner additions in Paris across key practice areas, including Private Funds, Private Equity and M&A, Restructuring, International Investigations, and Tax. Proskauer now has over 50 lawyers in Paris.
