Proskauer Advises Volition Capital on Closing of $950 Million Fund VI

October 5, 2026

BOSTON, October 5, 2026 – Proskauer advised growth equity investment firm Volition Capital ("Volition") on the final closing of Volition Capital Fund VI, L.P. ("Fund VI") at its hard cap of $950 million in limited partner capital commitments. Fund VI was oversubscribed and is the largest fund raised by Volition to date, bringing its total assets under management to over $2.6 billion.

With Fund VI, Volition will continue its established strategy of investing in founder-owned technology companies that have demonstrated strong customer demand and achieved meaningful growth with limited institutional capital. The firm has a long record of leading growth investments in capital-efficient B2B software, internet, and consumer companies.

The Proskauer team was led by partner Malcolm Nicholls and associates Blake Rowe and Hunter Becker (Private Funds) and included partner Arnold May, senior counsel Brianna Reed, and law clerk Susanna Blount (Tax); partner Adam Scoll (ERISA); and partner John Verwey (Regulatory).
