

Proskauer Advises Team61 on Minority Investment in the Athletics

October 22, 2026

NEW YORK, October 22, 2026 – Proskauer advised Team61, a South Korean investment group led by former Major League Baseball player Chan Ho Park, in finalizing and closing on its minority investment in the Athletics, the Major League Baseball (MLB) franchise.

The partnership is expected to serve as a bridge between South Korea and MLB and to help expand the global reach of Korean baseball and culture.

The Proskauer team was led by partner Rob Freeman (Sports/TMT); associate Jack Morant (Private Equity/M&A); partner Ryan Carpenter and associate Hunter Becker (Private Funds); and partner Amanda Nussbaum and senior counsel Bowon Koh (Tax).

About Proskauer

Proskauer is an elite global law firm with more than 900 lawyers in key financial centers in the United States, Europe, South America, and Asia. Our clients include many of the world's leading businesses, including asset managers, banks, listed corporations, and private companies. We have deep expertise in several of the fastest-growing and dynamic segments of the market, including sports, technology, life sciences, and health care. We represent hundreds of asset managers across a wide spectrum of sectors and strategies, including private equity, private credit, hedge, real assets, secondaries, and capital solutions.

For more than 60 years, Proskauer has advised the world's premier sports organizations on their most critical and complex matters. Our lawyers play a pivotal role in the transactions, negotiations, and litigations that are at the leading edge of the business of sports.

Related Professionals

- Robert E. Freeman

Partner

- Jack E. Morant

Associate

- Ryan M. Carpenter

Partner

- Hunter Becker

Associate

- Amanda H. Nussbaum

Partner

- Bowon Koh

Senior Counsel