Proskauer Advises Montefiore Investment on Sale of Valority

November 19, 2026

PARIS, November 19, 2026 – Proskauer advised Montefiore Investment on the sale of Valority, a French leader in student residence management and wealth advisory services.

Founded in 1985 by Dora D'Ambrosio and Christophe Verpillot, Valority has developed an integrated business model around rental property investment and related services. The group now serves 27,000 clients and employs more than 600 people.

As Valority's majority shareholder since 2019, Montefiore Investment has supported the founders and management team in refocusing the group on business lines with more recurring, resilient revenues. The number of student residences managed under its brand Les Belles Années has increased from 31 in 2019 to 79 today. At the same time, Valority has strengthened its wealth management platform, expanded its service offering, particularly in its range of financial products, and accelerated its digital transformation.

The transaction is part of the ongoing succession process involving Valority's managing directors, Romain and Maxime Laureyssens, and is expected to support the continued development of Les Belles Années.

The Proskauer team advising Montefiore Investment was led by partner Jeremy Scemama and included associates Aurélie Briquet and Hugo Monteiro Vieira (Private Equity M&A). The team also included partner Maud Manon and counsel Bruno Valenti (Global Finance).
