Proskauer Advises Mirova on €548 Million Partnership with Pantheon to Support Europe's Energy Transition

November 20, 2026

PARIS, November 20, 2026 – Proskauer advised Mirova, an affiliate of Natixis Investment Managers dedicated to sustainable investment, on the creation and fundraising of a fund in connection with a €548 million secondary transaction with Pantheon.

Headquartered in Paris, Mirova has more than 20 years' experience structuring and managing energy transition funds. Its energy transition infrastructure platform has financed more than 1,000 energy transition projects across 49 countries, with total installed capacity of 7.7 GW.

The transaction establishes a new partnership between Mirova and Pantheon to support the next phase of Europe's energy transition. It provides additional growth capital to a portfolio of European renewables platforms, while offering a tailored liquidity solution to investors in the Mirova-managed funds participating in the transaction. Pantheon is the sole third-party investor. The portfolio is diversified by technology, geography, platform and development stage, with a substantial contracted revenue base.

The mandate follows the Paris Private Investment Funds team's work on the €2.2 billion Meridiam Infrastructure Europe Core Fund and on Quaero Capital's water distribution infrastructure continuation fund.

The Proskauer team was led by partner Agnès Rossi and included counsel Xavier Couderc-Fani, associate Claire-Lise Le Scornet and law clerk Hamza Djelassi (Private Investment Funds); partner Matthieu Lampel and associates Benjamin Benzakine and Mohamed Kettani (Private Equity M&A); and partners Vlad Bulkin and Robert Sutton (US Regulatory).
